Since I am currently serving as the Chairman of the Board for United Way and the United Way campaign is in full swing I don't think it would be appropriate for me to campaign for the Crime Commission at the same time. It would send conflicting and confusing messages to the businesses that are running United Way campaigns.

Hello Mr. Collins,

As promised at the breakfast meeting last Tuesday, I am following up with you about our next steps relating to the future of the Memphis Shelby Crime Commission. You'll recall we talked about various Crime Commission Board members hosting a similar breakfast, lunch, or after work gathering. We are glad to make a presentation similar to the one made at breakfast last week and furnish you with talking points, so that other community leaders know and understand the critical work of the Crime Commission and the importance of their support.

The new Operation: Safe Community Plan 3 will be presented and recommended for approval at the Crime Commission Board members next Monday, October 31st. If approved, the plan will be announced to the public at a press conference tentatively set for November 15, 2016. We have a rather short time frame accompanied by busy schedules, so I am asking that you plan your meeting as soon as possible.

It may be helpful if you partner with another board member in your area and have a joint meeting. Please let me know what date(s) you will be meeting as soon as possible. Remember that I am available to help you in any way.

Thanks and I look forward to hearing from you soon!

Linda
